

Letter from Samuel P. Langley to Alexander Graham Bell, January 5, 1894

25 SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION WASHINGTON Jan. 5 94. Dear Professor Bell:—

I take the liberty of enclosing to you a communication from Dr. Hovent of Brussels, describing his special treatment of deafness by use of compressed air.

Will you have the goodness to say if the paper of Dr. Hovent seems to you to deserve more, or other, attention, than that accorded to it in the draft of the reply also enclosed?

Very truly yours, S.P.Langley Secretary. Professor A. Graham Bell, 1331 Connecticut Avenue, Washington. (Enclosures)
